

ROHWER HIGH GETS "A" RATING

Rated By State Superintendent

According to the letter just received by the school superintendent's office, Rohwer Center high school has received its "A" rating.

It is considered an honor to get an "A" rating during the first year of the school's establishment.

In a letter to J. A. Trice, superintendent, from Dr. M. R. Owens, Arkansas State high school supervisor, Owens states, "In a conference with W. F. Hall, State supervisor of elementary schools, we agreed that in view of the fact that your high school is a new institution with its students drawn from well-established high schools on the West coast, the class 'A' rating could be assigned without waiting for final rating on the elementary schools.

"I want to congratulate the principals, teachers and pupils on this achievement, because it is due largely to their planning, teaching and cooperation. I also want to express appreciation especially to the Project Director, chief of Community Services, procurement section and all other Project personnel who have contributed to progressive operation of the schools."

In commenting on the "A" rating, Trice said, "Wherever the students may go, this rating assures acceptance of their high school credits earned here. Although this represents the

ARTISTS' GUILD INVITES ROHWER

At the annual convention of the Ozark Writers and Artists' guild at Eureka Springs, Ark., a three-day art exhibit is being held from Thursday and ending today.

The guild which has members from 38 different states has asked for some of the works of the Rohwer Center high school students. The lobby of the Basin Park hotel will be the locale for the exhibit. Mrs. Mabel R. Jamison, art instructor, left Wednesday night to witness the exhibit.

will include registration from 8 to 10 a.m.; setting up camp from 10 to 12 noon; lunch from 12 to 12:30 p.m.; and clean up, inspection and rest, 12:30 to 1 p.m.

Highlight of the annual event will be the participation from 1 to 5 p.m. in the various projects including first aid, artificial respiration, knot-tying, charting directions and compass, signaling, axe and knife safety, dressing race, scout pace, and fire making and string burning.

Following the activities the program will consist of retreat, supper, police camp, free time, campfire, call to quarters and taps.

Tomorrow will be opened by reveille at 6:30 a.m. Various church services will take from 9 to 12 o'clock. After lunch and clean up, the troop scouts will start breaking camp from 1:30 p.m. and check out by 2:30 p.m.

NEW VEHICLES ARRIVE

By this time, there will be a fleet of trucks, ambulances and passenger cars on the highway from Fort Worth, Texas, to Rohwer and Jerome.

Calling for these vehicles, a group of fifteen evacuees and C. V. Updegraff, Transportation and Supply officer, left at 4 a.m. yesterday for Fort Worth.

On Thursday, three evacuees and James C. Moody, Procurement officer, and Harry E. Naff, garage foreman, left a day ahead to complete all arrangements.

The entire group expects to be back by tomorrow morning.

It is believed that a group from the neighboring Center, Jerome, also left for Texas with the plan of driving back at the same time.

CHIEF NURSE LEAVES CENTER

Geraldine E. Quinn, former chief nurse, is on leave of absence from the WRA.

Miss Quinn has received a notice from the Army and plans to wait in her home at Chicago for further orders.

ROHWER MEETS CAMP ROBINSON

June 19, 1943

LOCALS FAVORED OVER NISEI ARMY NINE IN SUNDAY'S GAME

Invading Rohwer for the first time, Camp Robinson's Japanese-American all-star soldier nine will tangle with Rohwer's all-star nine at the Junior high school field at 2:30 p.m., Sunday.

The soldier nine lost to Jerome in their first tilt against a center team and they will be out to win this one. A much improved team is expected to show up from Camp Robinson. Costly errors accounted for the downfall of the Camp Robinson nine.

Harry Sakamoto will hurl for the soldiers with Connie Hisatomi receiving his slants. Kaz Minamide, former Vacaville star, is their heaviest hitter. Holding down the initial bag, he accounted for two of the three hits garnered by the soldier nine.

Since the "A" league has not started yet, baseball commissioner George Morita found it difficult to select an all-star aggregation, so he is planning to let the original all-star team take the field against the soldiers.

Either Will Kagawa or Ted Kamibayashi will take the mound for the locals with Shago Muraoka behind the plate.

The local nine seems to have too much power what with Frank Horita, Hal Hiroso, Frank Kamibayashi and the rest in the lineup, but if hurler Harry Sakamoto holds his own, the game may go to the team that gets the break.

Here it is, fans. Rohwer's first "A" softball league all-star team hand-picked by Shiro Mizufuka, commissioner of softball. As the league folded after the end of the first round because of lack of teams and interest in the league, there was difficulty in selecting the team. Only those seen in action were chosen.

Sam Iida, George Yasutake and Kumao Shimamoto are chuckers of equal ability and to choose between them is a difficult job. All three have marvelous control and have been the mainstays of their respective teams. George Yasutake is at present on the outside working.

In Frank Nakamura, the Mutineers have one of the top receivers in the Center. A regular on the high school nine, Frank is smart and can be depended with the Louisville slugger.

The infield is a slick quartet with every player a top-notch fielder. Hisa Nakahira at the initial sack is one of those boys who can really powder the ball while George Miyake, Royal Spartans' pride and joy, is a smooth fielder and a better than average hitter. At the hot corner is young Buck Sakurai, a come-through type of player who gets his hits when they

MILITARY POLICE DEFEATS ROYAL DUKES, 1-0

In one of the most thrilling games ever played in this Center, the fighting Royal Dukes went down to defeat, 1-0, against the Military Police nine. It was the second straight victory for the soldiers against the Los Angeles nine.

With Sgt. Burke and Sam Iida of the Military Police and the Royal Dukes, respectively, hurling air-tight ball, the game went extra innings. With the huge crowd hanging on to every pitch, the soldiers broke the ice in the tenth inning when short fielder Hammons sent a looping fly which fell for a hit to bring in Commati for the winning run.

Sgt. Burke was the whole show hurling a two-hit game and fanning seventeen Dukes. Sam Iida twirled a six-hitter and struck out nine soldiers, pitching one of his best games. Gengo

SUMO KING VIC MATSUI-ATHLETE, SCHOLAR

Handsome, athletic, genial, modest, such is Victor Matsui, "sumo king" of Rohwer, who resides in Block 1, working as stock-room clerk for the mess hall.

A graduate of Redondo Union high school, and a freshman of UCLA, Victor's career as a sumoist began in 1938 in Gardena, where in 1939 and '40 he was a member of the southern California class "B" championship team for two years and in the following year became captain of that team. This championship he mentions as his greatest thrill in sumo. A gold loving cup was awarded to him in the Orange county tournament for the "goninnu-ki."

Victor is a promising protege of Bud Mukaye, sumo champ of Santa Anita assembly center and one of the best nisei in the sport.

Matsui is one of the three nisei athletes ever to make a varsity football letter in the history of Redondo high.

Athletes are supposed to be dumb, but in Vic's case he won a certificate of merit for his essay in the National Essay contest sponsored by the American Magazine Youth forum on the topic, "What Americanism Means to Me."

At present, our man Matsui is the president of the "Pacers," advisor for the "Manhattaners" and secretary of the Rohwer Viking weightlifting club.

LODI AND THREE STARS IN BASEBALL OPENER

The "A" baseball league will be officially opened this afternoon when Lodi and Three Stars tee off in the inaugural game at the Junior high school field.

Slated to toe the rubber for the Lodi nine is bespectacled Will Kagawa, a former Lodi Templar ace, who is rated as one of the best in this Center.

The Three Stars were dealt a heavy blow when Seiohi Sugino, ace curve-ball artist, left camp recently for outside employment.

In place of Sugino, Juli Nishimoto will be on the hill for the Three Stars.

EXHIBITION HELD

An exhibition on judo and kendo was presented to the Military Police and the administrative personnel at Mess hall 31 Thursday night.

Sponsored by the athletic department, it was emceed by Kats Nagai.

All-Stars Picked

Hiro Kayasuga, normally a hurler, is placed at left field because of his batting prowess. A fast man on the base paths, lil' Scooter is a dangerous man at the plate. Kanji Omokawa and Shig Ando of the Mutineers and Spartans, respectively, are both good hitters and they can really cover the outer pastures.

The "A" league all-star team is requested to come out to practice for four important games to come. They will play the National "B" league and American "B" league all-star teams, the Military Police and the Jerome All-Stars.

Flames Crowned National League Champions

The Lodi Flames were crowned champions of the "B" National league when they toppled Block 3, 5-4, Wednesday night. The youngest team in the circuit, the Flames did the unexpected by romping through all opposition.

In the "B" American league, the Joker Y's moved into the finals by trouncing the Diamond Heads, 9-7. By virtue of their win, the Joker Y's will face the ASK's for the "B" American league title tonight.

Deadline Set For Team Entries

All "A" and "B" league teams will be given one week to put in their team entries. Deadline is June 26. No team entry will be accepted after that date, Shiro Mizufuka, commissioner of softball, emphasized. "B" league champions will automatically climb into the "A" league.

Girls' Softball

Girls' softball commissioners, Maisie Hori-kiri and Kimi Miyao, request that all girls' softball teams must hand in their entries by June 26 at PS hall 32.
